

MODEL UN STUDENTS ATTEND DREW UNIVERSITY CONFERENCE

Several students recently attend the Model UN Conference at Drew University in February to negotiate final resolutions on the topics of nuclear disarmament, women's education, and global climate change. The following article shares their experiences including Best Position Paper Award, Commendation Award for Best Resolution, and public speaking nominations.

For more information see the recent news article at http://www.newjerseyhills.com/roxbury_register/news/mount-arlington-students-address-worldly-issues/article_bd922428-43b3-5b4a-8ece-4b067b886f25.html